Subject: PCN#06A-18, Notification of Change to the box label, changing the “Country of Origin” field to “Assembled In”.

Dear Lattice Customer,

Lattice is providing this notification of our intent to change the box label field currently named “Country of Origin” to “Assembled In”, to clearly state the significant activity that provides the origin of the parts. The conversion to the new box label will be a gradual transition until existing inventories have been exhausted.

A description of the change is as follows:

Country of Origin field (red box above) will be renamed to Assembled In (green box above).

There are no changes to the customer specific shipping labels.

AFFECTED DEVICES

Label change will apply to all Lattice products. There are no changes to the customer specific shipping labels.

TIMING

This change is effective immediately. As stated earlier, specific conversions will be a function of existing inventories.

RESPONSE

No response is required.
